7 piece set: Diesel multiple unit class 601 "Alpen-See-Express" of the Deutsche Bundesbahn.

The set contains one driven motor car, two open seating cars, one dining car, two compartment cars and one non-driven motor car.

- Anniversary model - "60 years of Roco"
- Operation conditions: 1980ies
- True to original livery and lettering

With the introduction of the series classification table of the DB on January 1st 1968 the powered end cars of the VT 11.5 were renumbered to BR 601, the middle wagons to BR 901. In 1971 the Deutsche Bundesbahn set up the Intercity system as a city express traffic system with 1st class vehicles and a every two hours interval. On average six units were in service every day. After a conversion in 1980, the locomotive operated in the special tourist traffic ("Alpen-See-Express"). Departing from Hamburg and Dortmund the tourist trains ran to popular vacation areas in SouthernGermany and Austria.
