The set contains a 1st class compartment coach, type Aüm 203, two 2nd class compartment coaches, type Büm 234, and a 2nd class compartment coach, type Büm 232.

- Coaches painted with the popular "Pop" colours from the 1970s
- Büm 234 with folding hinged doors and brake shoes available for the first time
- One 2nd class coach with "negative" DB logos
- Train route signs for DC 912 Frankfurt (M) - Emden and DC 913 Emden - Frankfurt (M) attached to the package

In 1973 the Deutsche Bundesbahn introduced the new train type "City-D-Zug", in short: DC. The single-class IC system from 1971 was to be completed with these two-class express trains. On the Frankfurt (M) - Hagen - Münster - Emden line (later partly to Norddeich), all three pairs of DC trains were driven with wagons in the famous "Pop-colours" from 1970.
